LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The next French Mail may be expected to arrive here on or about Thursday next by the M. M. steamer Amazone which brings London dates to the 24th

THE delivery of the English Mail was begun at 8.35 this morning. THE German steamer Octava and the Chinese steamer Tung Ting went to the Cosmopolitan Dock yesterday afternoon, and the German steamer China went to the Kow loon Dock yesterday evening.

WE have to acknowledge the receipt of a "Manual of Eye Diseases, by J. G. Kerr M.D.," (of Canton), printed in Chinese. The book is well got up, and illustrated with woodcuts.

WE publish in another column the talegrams which appear in the Straits Times Extra of the 11th instant. We make due of her hand. Further, it is reported that allowance, as a matter of course, for the breaking down of the mail steamer, but one is holding out. WE are glad to learn that Dr Stewart took his place to-day on the Police Magistrate's Bench, which conclusively shows that he has vacated his former post of Acting Colonial Secretary, although no official notification has yet appeared to that effect. JURORS will be glad to hear that the dimensions of the Jury box in the Supreme Court have been extended. Many complaints were made of the cramped position in which Jurors, more especially in the front row, had to sit during long trials. This has been widened by about a foot, and these unhappy gentlemen can now stretch their limbs and listen in comparative comfort to the monotonous evidence of Chinese witnesses and the appeals to their feelings made by opposing Counsel.

THE latest dates received at home previous to the closing of the English mail to hand to-day (London date, June 17) were as Yokohama April 24, Shanghai April 30, Foochow April 30, Hongkong May 5. The French mail, with advices dated as above from China, was delivered, via Naples, on the 13th ult., its due date. There were no later advices from Japan, via San Francisco. The next inward mail was despatched from Alexandria on the 16th ultimo, one day late. The Messageries Maritimes steamer Anadyr, with the following homeward mail, left Suck for Naples also on the 16th, three days early. Ma and Mrs Agden, with their Variety Company, according to a private letter from Townsville, dated June 13th, were booked to leave for Singapore by the next mail after that date. They were to play first at Batavia, and would then come on to Hongkong and complete the round of the China

In the Times of India, June 28th, it is announced that Mr Grant Duff had declined the Governorship of Madras and that Sir Ashley Eden, Lieutenant Governor of Bengal was to be appointed. According to the Bombay Gazette, it is stated from Simla that Sir U. C. Aitchison would probably go to Madras. The appointment of a Civil Servant, it was generally thought, would mean the reduction of Madras to at Lieutenant-Governorship. The only telegram received by the Indian papers up to the latest date in the files we have to hand, June 30th, was one dated June 28th, which was confined to these words,-"The Governorship of Madras has been offered to Mr Grant Duff." The telegram we published on the 14th instant went the length India, Aden, Egypt, Malta, and Gib-raltar. This is the best opportunity—(Per E. E. A. & C. Telegraph Co.'s Line.), of saying that "Mr Grant Duff had accepted the offer and been duly appointed Governor of Madras." This is supported by the Pioneer's private telegraphic It is stated that the Italian Government advices, and they are seldom inaccurate, is preparing a Memorial to the Great Our contemporary writes (June 30th) "From information which reached us from England yesterday, we are enabled to state that Mr Grant Duff has actually accepted the Governorship of Madras, and that the official announcement will, in all probability, be made during the next few days. Mr Grant Duff is a man of wide attainments, and with a love of hard work; and he may, moreover, be confidently expected to secure the popularity of his sub-The idea of a Civil Servant being appointed to the position may, we think, be dismissed, in view of the fact that on the 28th June, Lord Hartington, replying to a question in the Commons, said the substitution of a Lieutenant Governor for a Governor of Madras would require a special Act which it would take some time to pass; the appointment in the meantime could not be so long kept vacant, and would be filled up. On the following night his Lordship, replying to another question about the Governorship of Madras, said that personally he believed the policy of the proposed change of the Governorship to a Lieutenant Governomhip was very doubtful. The whole affair is considerably mixed by Reuter's people, but we cannot help thinking that it is correct that Grant Duff goes to Madras.

(Straits Times.) A sad accident occurred in the harbour on Sunday evening (10th), resulting in the death by drowning of Mr William R. Evans. 3rd mate of the British ship Dolbarden Castle. Mr Evans had borrowed the Captain's dingly to visit some friends on board the British ship Derbyshire, lying in the roads, and in company with three friends from that ship started for the shore at half-past six in the evening. When within about 200 or 300 yards from Johnston's pier, they began playing, or, as it is termed, "syklarking" in the boat and it was capsized. Evans sank and never rose again; the other three clung to the boat till they were rescued by a boat from the steamer Bentan. Search has been made for the body of the unfortunate Mr Evans. but it he not yet been found; and it is believed he must have fallen a prey to the sharks that abound in the harbour.

Claistian Advocate (U.S.) Trubner's Oriental Record contains the fotlowing notice of the China Review :-- "This is the title of a publication, the first number | Victoria Recreation Club-Bath-house of which has lately reached us from flongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some-respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar. to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great dogree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Reviews by papers highlycreditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh Half hour, 10 cts. | Hour,20 cts. century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace.
